You might expect a winter getaway to Sun Valley, one of the top ski destinations in North America, to include hotel-provided shuttle service to the slopes—and you'd be right. But it's much less likely that you'd anticipate the dozen other tricks, specials and packages those same hotels have up their sleeves to keep winter recreators happy. Here's a look at a few hotspots and the perks they offer:

Knob Hill Inn: Knob Hill is a boutique hotel on the outskirts of Ketchum, with some of the best mountain views in the city. If you book two consecutive nights there before Feb. 15, you get the third free, and all-inclusive packages like the Snowshoe & Stay can take away the stress of planning excursions. Plus, if you're heading up the mountain in the morning, let the staff know and they'll warm up your boots by the fire and set your skis out on the ski rack. You can even call Knob Hill's shuttle from the top of the mountain to have it waiting when you finish your last run.
